Define your boundaries...

Stake out your territory, whether it is your suburban front yard, or a wide-open pasture. Enduris Post & Rail fencing is well-suited for marking boundaries and accenting your property.

Enduris offers two types of rail fencing to suit your applications, and both are constructed for superior strength and durability. We've engineered Ranch fencing, designed for use around livestock, to be heavier gauge in both posts and rails.* Estate components are slightly lighter duty, but still stand tall and endure decades of weather and use.

Not all low-maintenance fences are created equal

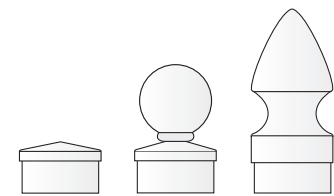

The fences you see lined up in front of your neighborhood Home Center serve a purpose — low price. We've all learned from the phrase "You get what you pay for," and this is one of those instances. Enduris fencing is designed, manufactured and engineered to be one of the best values in landscaping today. Composed of rigid polyvinyl chloride (PVC), its UV inhibitors and additives make it impervious to the elements, yet flexible enough to resist cracking.

Components are produced for durability and strength under exacting quality control checks. The combination of strength and long-lasting good looks is exactly what you're looking for in vinyl fencing.

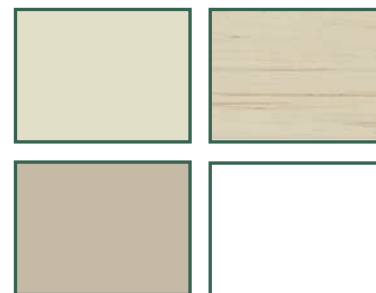

There's virtually no maintenance, other than an occasional spray with a garden hose, or brushing off grass clippings.

Tan, Variegated Tan, Khaki or White.

Enduris vinyl post and rail fencing is available in two-, three-, and four-rail configurations, in solid White, Tan or Khaki. We've also taken the subtle woodgrains you find in nature and incorporated them into our Variegated Tan post and rail fence; our manufacturing process assures a natural-looking woodgrain pattern.

Enduris post and rail fencing offers all the charm and good looks of a wood rail fence, with none of the maintenance — no painting, staining, splinters or warping. We make installation quick and easy with pre-routed corner, end and line posts, and self-locking notched rails.
